DREADFUL DISCLOSURES

OVER FOUR THOUSAND CHILDREN STARVING TO DEATH.

A Long List of Heartrending Cases Brought to Light in Vienna—Infamous Action of the Police in County Galway. A Mob Takes Westminster Abbey.

VIENNA, Oct. 25.—Inquiry recently instituted into the condition of the Vienna poor attending the elementary schools resulted in appalling disclosures. Upward of four thousand children were suffering the pangs of hunger, some of them being on the verge of starvation. A long list of heartrending cases came to light, and there was no doubt that not a few of the unfortunate little ones had died of inattention. Their emaciated appearance amply testified to the veracity of the statement I persuasively extracted from them, which revealed a condition of hopeless destitution unprecedented in the pauper records of this capital.

This intelligence heralded abroad through the local press at once made the starving school children the idols of the hour. The children, when cross examined by a relief committee, corroborated the evidence already taken. It transpired that their principal food consisted of dry bread and occasionally a little weak soup or coffee. It is quite true that some of them affirmed that they took habitually a glass of spirits to stifle the cravings of their appetite and to keep out the cold. One boy positively stated that his father was a good man and that when he couldn't give him anything to eat he let him drink as much gin as he liked and this was why he often went to school drunk.

The parents of these starving children are for the most part day laborers, though some undoubtedly belong to a less respectable class. As soon as the work of relieving the children was taken in hand subscriptions were opened at the editorial offices of the metropolitan press. Seldom has an appeal to public charity been more readily and generously responded to. The poorer classes have largely contributed. The popular newspapers are full of advertisements from people who can't spare much money, but who offer to give one or two children their daily food. All the hotels and restauranteurs are feeding a certain number of children every day.

Sir Wilfred Blunt Arrested.

DUBLIN, Oct. 25.—At Woodford, County Galway, Sunday, a Home Rule meeting was to be held under the auspices of the British Home Rule union, to protest against coercion. The government proclaimed the meeting and sent a large body of troops and police to the town. There was a great crowd of people from the surrounding country. The platform was in a large field. Wilfred Blunt, the philanthropist, formerly Conservative, was to preside, assisted by James Rowlands, M. P., and other British members of parliament. When the speakers mounted the platform, Judge Byrne, the divisional magistrate, forbade Mr. Blunt to hold the meeting. Thereupon Mr. Blunt defied the police, who were at once ordered to clear the platform. Several policemen seized the bold speaker, who violently resisted being thrown from the platform. Twice he cried out loudly:

"Are you such d—d cowards that you do not dare to arrest me?"

The district inspector replied, "I arrest you."

Mr. Blunt was then marched off under a heavy escort of police, with his wife following. The people pressing upon the officers and blocking the way, the latter were ordered to charge up to them, which they did, injuring many. Mr. Rowlands, who was left with his conferees on the stand, called for three cheers for Blunt, which was heartily given. Mr. Blunt was taken before two magistrates and commanded to refrain from holding any meeting, but the English member refused to comply with their demands and was retained in custody. In the evening Mr. Blunt and another prisoner were conveyed to Loughrea jail.

A feeling of intense gratification prevails among the Nationalists. Mr. Harrington last night expressed himself that he did not believe Mr. Blunt would be detained or prosecuted. "But," he added, "it will do good and I should not wonder if we hear more of it."

Mr. William O'Brien was paying a visit to Mr. Blunt when the news of Mr. Blunt's arrest arrived. Both gentlemen expressed great concern for the personal inconvenience to which Mr. Blunt would be subjected, but could not conceal their gratification at the turn events had taken. The interest was intensified when it became known that the telegraph wires between Fortunata and Woodford had been cut and the service suspended for several hours. The greatest activity prevailed at Dublin Castle, communications being constantly sent and received.

Mr. Wilfred Blunt's letter to Magistrate Byrne guaranteed moderate language on the part of his speakers. He warned the magistrate that he would hold him responsible if he attacked an unarmed, orderly meeting.

Over thirty persons were more or less seriously injured at Woodford. The feeling against the police runs very high. It is stated that in many instances they had recourse to unnecessary brutality.

A Mob in Westminster Abbey.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Several thousand unemployed, with a red flag at their head, marched in procession yesterday afternoon from Trafalgar square to Westminster Abbey, and, although no invitation had been extended, 1,200 of the crowd were admitted. The flag was left in charge of the vergers. Inside the abbey many of the unexpected visitors remained covered, and indulged in whistling, while others mounted the pedestals of the various statues or mingled with the decent people present, who mostly left the building. The crowd, as a rule, chewed tobacco, and expectorated everywhere, regardless of the surroundings, until the first lesson was announced, when the reader was loudly jeered, completely drowning his voice. The second lesson was similarly received.

Canon Pro Nero preached a sermon, which was interrupted repeatedly by loud questions and expletives.

At the close of his remarks the mob hissed and marched out of the abbey, cordially cheered by their comrades in waiting outside. The whole then proceeded shouting and hooting, to Trafalgar square, where the leaders denounced the church and police.

Several arrests were made of brawling persons and thieves.

Let the Punishment Fit the Crime.

PARIS, Oct. 25.—The testimony developed at the inquest into the great loss of life attending the burning of the opera comique and the nature of the indictment against M. Carvalho, the manager, and other officials, have just been published, through journalistic indiscretion. The evidence taken indicates almost incredible carelessness and want of system in the management of the theater. M. Carvalho gives a version of the cause of the disaster which he claims will exculpate him from all blame. He promises to prove the accuracy of his statements when the case comes up for trial.

"BLINKY" MORGAN'S TRIAL.

An Influx of Criminals, Who Are Suspected of Planning a Rescue.

RAVENNA, O., Oct. 25.—The now all-absorbing topic of conversation in official circles, in the household, in the shop, and on the street corners is "Blinky" Morgan, the recognized murderer, highwayman, robber, thief, and general desperado. Ever since the arrival on Thursday of the two score of witnesses who will testify in his behalf by attempting to prove an alibi, the officials in charge of "Blinky" have been more cautious.

This intelligence heralded abroad through the local press at once made the starving school children the idols of the hour. The children, when cross examined by a relief committee, corroborated the evidence already taken. It transpired that their principal food consisted of dry bread and occasionally a little weak soup or coffee. It is quite true that some of them affirmed that they took habitually a glass of spirits to stifle the cravings of their appetite and to keep out the cold. and Accidents.

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va., Oct. 25.—Miss Agnes Pullen, living few miles above here, met with a fatal accident. While standing near the fireplace at her residence her clothes suddenly caught fire, and before the flames could be extinguished her body was so badly burned that her death is momentary.

AMER GREEN'S LYNCHERS.

NO POSSIBILITY OF CONVICTING ANY OF THEM.

The Coroner Investigating the Affair, but

It is Believed That He is Working On a

Hopeless Case—Governor Gray in a Letter

Censure the Sheriff and Judge.

DELPHI, Ind., Oct. 25.—There is still considerable excitement over the lynching of Amer Green, on Friday night, and more in the eastern part of the county about Burlington and Young America. The coroner held a short sitting on Saturday at Flora and adjourned until this week, when he will take up the investigation. He is proposing to subpoena a large number of witnesses with view to identify members of the mob. The Delphi Journal, in an extra issued Saturday morning, stated that Mr.

Mabitt, father of the missing girl, talked with Amer as the mob was preparing to hang him. Mr. Mabitt denied before the coroner that he was present, and now the Journal editors will be summoned to tell what they know. His was the only name mentioned as that of a member of the mob.

PULASKI COUNTY pays her County Judge and County Attorney each a salary of $750.

THE Republican rangers are not satisfied with Cleveland, but that is not to be wondered at. They would not be satisfied with any Democrat at the head of the Government.

V. A. PINCKARD, well known in Mayville and Mason County, was elected Treasurer of the General Convention of the Christian Church of this country at the recent annual session in Indianapolis.

THE Louisville jail is pretty well filled with violators of the internal revenue laws. There are one hundred and forty-five of the accused in all confined in the jail, and singular to say most of them are Republicans.

PULASKI is another Kentucky county free of debt. The last of her liabilities was paid off at the recent session of her Court of Claims. Some of the counties in Kentucky are in splendid financial condition, but there are a few that are weighted down with debts.

THE people of Ohio are having a taste of Southern oratory. Congressman Crain, of Texas, is already in the State, and Governor Gordon, of Georgia, will be on hand this week. "Bombastes" Foraker will now be more furious than ever. Perhaps the worthy warrior will learn after awhile that the war ended long ago.

WICHITA stills manages to get a little notoriety out of the drug clerk who was fined $20,000 and sent to the penitentiary seventeen years for selling liquor contrary to the statutes in such cases provided. Governor Martin listened to the appeals made, and has commuted the sentence to six months in jail and a fine of $600.

THE Government authorities are after the Cincinnati parties who worked the St. Andrews Bay land scheme not long ago. Indictments have been reported in the United States Court against Guy Webber and one or two others for using the mails for fraudulent purposes. A worse swindle never was worked, and the parties should be punished.

WHEN the charming daughter of Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, one of the loveliest girls of a district famed for beautiful women, comes to Cincinnati as the wife of one of our citizens, we may begin to realize that this cruel war is over.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The people of Ohio may realize that the war ended over twenty years ago, but you can't convince Foraker that the fighting down South ended then.

THE champion quail-eater is again figuring in the prints. G. C. Flora, of Campbellsville, Ky., has commenced the task of eating one hundred quails in fifty consecutive days. He ate eighty quails last season in forty days, and is confident that he can easily beat his previous record. If he succeeds he receives the sum of $500 from a syndicate of his native town.

BUCKEYES are in demand over in Ohio. The centennial of that State will be celebrated some time next year, and the buckeye is to cut an important figure in the "procession." All that can be procured for "love or money" are being gathered throughout the State. A citizen of Georgetown wants three hundred bushels, and is paying 50 cents a bushel right along for them. The woods over that way will be full of boys from now on until the demand is satisfied.

At the recent General Convention of the Christian Church, of this country, held at Indianapolis, it was resolved to celebrate the birthday of Alexander Campbell September the 12th, next year, by raising a memorial fund, and the Alumni of Bethany College will honor Mr. Campbell's memory by endowing a charity not yet named. On October 1st all churches will make a special collection for endowment of a Campbell Chair in Bethany College; and all funds collected in excess of the amount necessary for this purpose will go to the general missionary fund.

THAT Miss Jones is a nice-looking girl, isn't she?"

"Yes, and she'd be the belle of the town if it wasn't for one thing."

"What's that?"

"She has catarrh so bad that it is unpleasant to be near her. She has tried a dozen things and nothing helps her. I am sorry, for I like her, but that doesn't make it any less disagreeable for one to be around her."

Now if she had used Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, there would have been nothing of the kind said, for it will cure catarrh every time.

As the election draws nigh The candidates begin to sigh, For it costs lots o' money The voter to hovey.

It's whisky, wine and beer That costs mighty dear, And then to be counted out, Which he ought, without a doubt.

For the man who buys a vote In the future has no hope, For his hirlelins will surely squeal, And cut him out on the deal.

And villainy, too, Will surely cause some one to rue, As the blow about the snub Will, in the final rub.

And you will please remember On the second Tuesday of November, That you will mighty careful be, That your ticket reads Gen. Thomas E.

IN MEMORIAM.

W. T. DAMARY, a member of Greta Green Lodge No. 99, P. O. of Abbeville, S. C., died at Vanceburg, Ky., September 22, 1887, and was interred at Concord, Ky., September 24th, with the ceremonial rites of the order of K. P., conducted by the lodge of which he was a member.

The deceased had long been a patient sufferer with that dread disease, consumption, and was finally compelled to surer to the inevitable, passed peacefully away on the 24th of September, 1887, surrounded by his loving wife and dear relatives and friends.

He was an honest, upright citizen, kind-hearted and generous, and lived a pure Pythian life. The following were recently passed by the lodge:

Resolved, that in the death of Brother W. T. Damary this lodge has lost a worthy and zealous brother, the community a useful and well-organized member, and his bereaved wife a faithful and devoted husband.

Resolved, that the chapter and jewel of the lodge be draped in mourning for the period of thirty days.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be read upon our minutes, a copy be sent to the widow of the deceased, and a copy be sent to the Mayville DAILY BULLETIN with request for publication.

A Fight With Bare Knuckles.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—A short but desperate prize fight took place in an old barn, on the east side of the Passaic, nearly opposite Newark, Saturday midnight. It was between John Fox, of Chicago, and Hugo Coyne, of Newark. Bare knuckles were used for a purse of $50. The Chicago man is nearly six feet high and weighs about 150 pounds. The Newark fighter weighed but two pounds less, and is three inches shorter.

Charles Grimes held the mopes. Frank Cavanagh acted as second for Fox, and John Martin, of Newark, for Coyne. As soon as time was called the men advanced and were about to snake hands; when Fox struck a stinging right-hander on Coyne's neck. The latter tried to return the compliment, but was foiled. The Chicago tough forced the fight and gave Coyne a unmerciful hammering, and soon ended the round. The second round was brutal from the start, and Fox again led, dealing his game adversary a succession of painful blows. Again the two ran at each other, and fought desperately, until Fox gave Coyne a sledge-hammer blow on the neck, knocking him down. Martin then admitted that his man was defeated when he saw he was unconscious, and Fox took the $50.

MOUNTED SWORD CONTEST.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 25.—In the mounted sword contest yesterday afternoon between Sergts. Walsh and McGuire, at the base ball grounds, the latter won in the fourteenth round by knocking his opponent clean off his horse. McGuire caught Walsh's sword and held it to the ground.

The second round was brutal from the start, and Fox again led, dealing his game adversary a succession of painful blows. Again the two ran at each other, and fought desperately, until Fox gave Coyne a sledge-hammer blow on the neck, knocking him down. Martin then admitted that his man was defeated when he saw he was unconscious, and Fox took the $50.

Probable Guilty of Another Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—Hattie Woolstein, who is alleged to have confessed the murder of Dr. Harlan at Los Angeles, is rapidly recovering, and will probably be able to attend her examination on Monday. Since her arrest suspicion has been aroused concerning the death last spring of an elderly lady named Barbour, who resided in the same house with Hattie. This lady's death was rather sudden and it is now thought that she was poisoned by the girl. After her death some $60,000 worth of bonds, which she was known to have had, could not be found, and it has recently been discovered that these identical bonds are in a local bank, and Hattie is charged with having negotiated them, the money thus realized being invested in land. A movement is now being made toward having Mrs. Barbour's body disinterred, so that her remains may be examined.

Destructiveness of Sherman's Bummers.

As we advanced into the wild pine regions of North Carolina the natives seemed wonderfully impressed at seeing every road filled with marching troops, artillery and wagon trains. They looked destitute enough as they stood in blank amazement gazing upon the "Yanks" marching by. The scene before us was very striking; the resin pits were on fire, and great columns of black smoke rose high into the air, spreading and mingling together in gray clouds, and suggesting the roof and pillars of a vast temple. All traces of habitation were left behind, as we marched into that grand forest with its beautiful carpet of pine needles. The straight trunks of the pine trees shot up to a great height, and then spread out into a green roof, which kept us in perpetual shade. As night came on, we found that the resinous sap in the cavities cut in the trees to receive it had also been lighted by "bummers" in our advance. The effect of these peculiar watch fires on every side, several feet above the ground, with flames licking their way up the tall trunks, was peculiarly striking and beautiful.

But it was sad to see this wanton destruction of property, which, like the firing of the re-in pits, was the work of "bummers," who were marauding through the country committing every sort of outrage. There was no restraint except with the column or the regular foraging parties. We had no communications, and could have no safeguards. The country was necessarily left to take care of itself, and became a "howling waste." The "coffee coolers" of the Army of the Potomac were archangels compared to our "bummers," who often fell to the tender mercies of Wheeler's cavalry, and were never heard of again, earning a fate which was richly deserved.

Resolved, that the chapter and jewel of the lodge be draped in mourning for the period of thirty days.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be read upon our minutes, a copy be sent to the widow of the deceased, and a copy be sent to the Mayville DAILY BULLETIN with request for publication.

"Yes, and she'd be the belle of the town if it wasn't for one thing."

"What's that?"

"She has catarrh so bad that it is unpleasant to be near her. She has tried a dozen things and nothing helps her. I am sorry, for I like her, but that doesn't make it any less disagreeable for one to be around her."

Now if she had used Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, there would have been nothing of the kind said, for it will cure catarrh every time.

Probable Guilty of Another Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—Hattie Woolstein, who is alleged to have confessed the murder of Dr. Harlan at Los Angeles, is rapidly recovering, and will probably be able to attend her examination on Monday. Since her arrest suspicion has been aroused concerning the death last spring of an elderly lady named Barbour, who resided in the same house with Hattie. This lady's death was rather sudden and it is now thought that she was poisoned by the girl. After her death some $60,000 worth of bonds, which she was known to have had, could not be found, and it has recently been discovered that these identical bonds are in a local bank, and Hattie is charged with having negotiated them, the money thus realized being invested in land. A movement is now being made toward having Mrs. Barbour's body disinterred, so that her remains may be examined.

Gilbert Comedy Company.

The week's engagement at the opera house by the Gilbert Comedy Company was commenced last night. "A Celebrated Case" was given, and it was enjoyed by the large audience present. Miss Gilbert and J. H. Huntley were frequently applauded in their rendition of the leading characters of the drama. The costumes were elegant, and a good orchestra helped to make the evening an enjoyable one. To-night the comedy drama, "Quena," will be rendered.

To Construe a Will

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Frank W. Armstrong and others, trustees under the will of James S. Armstrong, deceased, have filed suit in the Superior Court, praying for construction of the will. They are in doubt as to whether they have the power to invest the proceeds of the sale of securities in any other but United States bonds, the testator having expressed a preference for that class of securities in case any investments were made. They are also in doubt whether their powers in relation to one class of securities are different from their powers in relation to others."

"Love Laughs at Locksmiths."

Among the passengers on the train due here yesterday morning at eleven o'clock were a couple of lovers from Central Kentucky. They were apprehensive that their journey to Aberdeen might be interrupted at the depot by an officer of the law, and prevailed upon the conductor to stop the train at the junction of Lexington street, Fifth ward, where they alighted. They did not intend to have their plans foiled at this stage of the game, and a friend hustled to the river and had Logan Cook in waiting with a skiff at Front and Lexington streets.

The river was soon crossed, and 'Squire Beasley was not long in speaking the words that made the lovers happy. Their names were not learned, but they belong to prominent families.

New Kentucky Wesleyan College.

Work has been commenced on the Kentucky Wesleyan College at Winchester. From a special it is learned that the excavation has already begun, and a day and night force will be at work until November 8, the day selected for laying the corner stone. The building will be 145 feet front and 120 feet deep, with a tower and dome 124 feet high. The interior arrangements are of the latest and most approved styles, and the edifice will, beyond dispute, be the finest and most imposing structure of the kind in the State.

It is situated on the summit of a beautiful eminence overlooking the city, and from the dome can be seen portions of seven counties and a magnificent view of the rich mountains of Eastern Kentucky for a radius of thirty miles. The foundation will be constructed this fall and the entire building completed and ready for occupancy by next August.

Elaborate arrangements are being made by the people of Winchester, and there is to be a big "blow-out" at the laying of the corner-stone. The day will be a holiday, and the city will be decorated, and illuminated at night. A procession of the secret societies, military companies, fire department, bands of music, etc., and fire-works will be a part of the programme.

The railroad contractors down near Bradford are having some trouble with their workmen. The hands have not received their pay for August, and quit the other day, and the original contractors talk of putting on another force to complete the work. The Dover News says: "The laborers, numbering about sixty or seventy, are firm in their determination to prevent any work being done until they are paid in full."

ANDREW LAWRENCE, a Maysville boy, is a member of the Champion Drill Band with the Gilbert Comedy Company.

BROWNING & CO.,

No. 3 East Second St. Maysville.

WINCHESTER is a live, wide-wake little city, and is knocking out her neighbors right along. Talk is cheap, but the manner in which the Louisville, Cincinnati and Virginia Railroad enterprise was rushed through and placed upon a solid footing, and the way in which the Kentucky Wesleyan College business was managed show that the people of Clark County's booming capital do not indulge in much unnecessary speechifying. They go quietly at work, and the result is soon manifest. The people of other cities, even of Maysville, might learn a few valuable lessons from the citizens of Winchester.

The new Presbyterian Church at Ford, Clark County, is about completed, and will be dedicated on the 6th of next month. Most of the money for the erection of this church was secured through the earnest work of Rev. Joseph M. Evans, of this city, and to him is due much of the credit for the successful completion of the edifice.

WOODSON HACKNEY, an employ of Mr. Shanahan, the contractor, was killed Saturday while at work on the new railroad, near Newport, by a bank caving in on him. He was engaged at undermining the bank, when it became top heavy and fell, and before he could get out of the way the falling dirt caught him and buried him completely. Coroner Winston held an inquest, and the jury returned a verdict of accidental death. The deceased was fifty years of age, and leaves a wife and five children. His remains were sent to his wife, who resides in Virginia.

In the Christian Church Sunday afternoon, the "Young Peoples' Society of Christian Endeavor" was organized through the efforts of the pastor, Mr. Priest. The society will meet at the church every Sunday evening at 6:15 o'clock. It has a membership now of thirty-four.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

ANTI-ADMINISTRATION MEN MEET AND ORGANIZE ANEW.

Delegates from the United States Elect a Provisional Committee and Issue Circular No. 1, Giving Twenty Reasons Why They Are Dissenters—Labor News.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—Subsequent to the adjournment of the General Assembly Knights of Labor, at Minneapolis, about thirty-five anti-administration delegates, representing states, met in this city and elected a provisional committee of five with Charles P. Seib secretary. A long communication, called "Circular No. 1," has been drafted at the secretary's office, and will be sent to Knights of Labor all over the country.

The circular gives twenty reasons "that have compelled the serious actions," which are substantially as follows:

"The general office has become the haunt of men whose aim it is to benefit themselves; there has been a conspiracy to hold salaried positions under control of the general assembly; that persons were hired to lecture, organize and instruct, when their principal task was to fix certain districts; that organizer's commissions have been refused to anti-ringsters, although they were highly indorsed by their assemblies; that district and local assemblies have been expelled because they opposed the conspiracy which has brought false charges against dissenters; that the records of the general office have been doctored so as to rule out administrative representatives as the administration said fit; that deserving men have been refused seats in the general assembly and those who had no right were admitted; that money had been extravagantly expended by the general board; hotel, laundry and bat-halls of members of the board have been paid; funds have been donated to officers for their personal use and general officers, organizers, lecturers, etc., have not only been allowed heavy expense accounts in addition to their salaries, but have charged additional sums from locals and districts; honest men have been disgraced by blundering officials; that efforts to better assemblies have been strangled by the ring; that the boycott has been used to injure products of Knights of Labor and union labor for the purpose of "downing" anti-ringsters; that non-members have been given lucrative positions by the board; that the constitution has been illegally altered; that war has been waged against trade unions and assemblies; that nearly all important strikes or lockouts with which the executive board have interfered have been lost; that the blundering, arbitrary policy of the board has lost the order 217,924 members during the year; that in spite of the decrease of members the expenses have been increased $50,000; that there has been no itemized account of the expenditures issued as was formerly the custom; that outrageous decisions were rendered in the general assembly, and that the gag law ruled supreme."

The circular closes with a call to assemblies to join the new order. It is signed by Secretary Seib, who offers to furnish information to all.

The Mail says: "There is going to be trouble in the Knights of Labor until the Anarchist question is settled," said a well known Knight of Labor to a reporter for the Mail to-day. "The animus of the secession movement proclaimed by Charles F. Seib, secretary of the provincial committee, in the morning papers, is Anarchy. All the alleged grievances—all the attacks on Powderly—take their hue, color and rise from the desire of certain Socialists to run the organization in the interests of their peculiar doctrines. Failing to rule they seek to ruin the Knights of Labor. All the revolutionaries are Anarchists."

Do they represent any great number of the knights?"

"I think it is another instance of the three traitors of Hoyle street, and, 'we, the people of England.' They represent themselves, but time alone will tell what their following will be. I think it will not amount to much. At any rate it will simply clear out of the order the element of weakness, the kickers that always make trouble."

The circular which they have gotten out says that organizers' commissions have been refused to certain members. What about that?"

"Well, that's a long story. I'll just say that the order couldn't afford to pay Seib and Schilling for organizing societies for the propagation of Socialism and Anarchy, and they didn't pay them. All these charges that the funds of the order have been squandered; that a conspiracy has been formed for the purpose of holding the salaried positions, etc., are malicious uncomfits. They are the regulation growls of disappointed politicians."

Coopers to Withdraw From the K. of L.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—It is reported that all the tight-barrel cooperers in this city, about 2,000 in number, will follow the example of their Milwaukee brethren and leave the Knights of Labor. They sympathize with the brewers in their opposition to Mr. Powderly's temperance idea.

THE BANK WRECKERS.

Harper's Trial Set for November 21 Before Judges Sage and Jackson.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 25.—None of the Fidelity cases came before the Federal court to-day, owing to the absence of Judge Jackson, who is ill at his home in Nashville, Tenn. The judge will probably arrive to-morrow, when the remainder of the indicted Fidelity people will be arraigned. Ex-Fidelity Bank Directors Chatfield and Pogue, with their attorneys, William Ramsey and Isaac Jordan, and Edward Gurney and Thomas McDougall, appeared before Judge Sage this morning and asked for a speedy trial, that the stigma of guilt on the last but of their previous good character might be at once removed.

Judge Sage said it would be first necessary to confer with Judge Jackson, as it was about decided, to begin the Fidelity suits with Harper's case. The case was set for trial November 21. It was rumored this morning that Josie Holmes would ask to have her bond fixed, and that she would be released from jail. District Attorney Burnett, however, denied the truth of the report. "She will remain where she is until the day of her trial," he declared.

Lumber Firm Embarrassed.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 25.—A Journal special says: Rood & Maxwell, of Washburn, Wis., heavy lumbermen, were closed to-day on an attachment is used by the Third National bank of St. Paul, to secure an advance of $200,000. There is a considerable excitement at Washburne, as over 200 men are thrown out of employment. The liabilities will reach $450,000. The firm claim they can wipe out every claim and still be worth $100,000.

THE FIRE RECORD.

Fire in a Marsh—Cattle Sheds Destroyed—Four Mill Burned—Other Losses.

LA PORTE, Ind., Oct. 25.—The fires that have prevailed in the Kankakee marsh during the last week extended over a larger territory and have been much more destructive than was first supposed. In a number of places farmers were compelled to haul water to quench the fire where it had communicated to the turf. The burnt district comprises an area of about nine miles square, reaching from Grovertown to nearly the Kankakee river, and extended north from the Pittsburgh railroad to the Baltimore & Ohio road. Over five thousand tons of hay have been destroyed, valued at $16,000.

Cattle Sheds Burned.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 25.—The empty cattle sheds of the distillery were set on fire yesterday and destroyed. Loss, $7,000; insurance, $6,500. Following the distillery fire the department was called to the livery stable of G. W. Carrico, on North Third street. All the horses and carriages were saved, but the building was destroyed. Loss about $3,000; no insurance. Both fires were the work of an incendiary.

Residence Destroyed.

WILMINGTON, O., Oct. 25.—The residence of Mrs. Lydia Snowden, mother of Carter L. Snowden, five miles west of here was burned late last night with all its contents. No insurance. Loss, $2,000.

Carpenter Shop and Stables.

PORTSMOUTH, O., Oct. 25.—Johnson's carpenter shop and five adjoining stables, at the corner of Eighth and Findlay streets were destroyed by fire yesterday.

Flour Mills and Dwelling.

CLINTON, Ill., Oct. 25.—The flour mill of Sylvester & Peidcord, together with a dwelling, were destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss, $11,000; insurance, $2,000.

Mr. Grinnell Called to Washington.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—State's Attorney Grinnell received a telegram from Attorney General Garland Sunday requesting him to come to Washington. Mr. Grinnell came up to his office at once and packed up the same papers used when he was invited into the state's case by Attorney General Hunt. Gen. Garland says that he wants Mr. Grinnell present while the defense makes their argument, so that he can be enlightened on the points raised.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Quotations of the Money, Stock, Produce and Cattle Markets for Oct. 24.

NEW YORK.—Money 3 1/4 per cent. Exchange steady. Government bonds.

Current sizes, 121 bid; four coupons, 123 1/4 for-and-a-halfs, 103 1/4 bid.

The stock market opened dull and weak and the bears raided the list quite freely in the first hour, causing prices to give way, sharply. At the lowest point values were down to 2 per cent. There was but little support extended to the list and stocks gave way, freely on the slightest pressure. Toward 12 o'clock the market stood down somewhat and there was a recovery, of 1/2 to 1 1/2 per cent from the lowest point. The market is steady.
